Sportland has jackets available and will sew on any patches you have, however, they do not have patches available there.

Patches for letter jackets

- When a student letters for the first time, in any activity, they will receive the “PC” for their jacket, and a small patch for the activity that is sewn on the letter.
- For each subsequent lettering, the student will receive a small bar patch.
- A small activity patch is received when the student letters in an activity for the first time.
- 3” sleeve patches may be purchased by the student if they have lettered in the sport
- Captain’s stars (sewn on lower part of left sleeve) may be purchased by the student if they were a team captain.
